BY THE GOVERNOR.

A THANKSGIVING I BOCLAMATION.

Gratitude and reverent obedience require us to give thanks to Almighty God, for the mercies and blessings he has bestowed upon us, for the very abundant harvests voneheafed us, for the constantly increasing prosperity of the many laborers, for the enlargement and augmentation of business and financial success, and the many other blessings accorded us during the past

Now, therefore, in compliance with this praiseworthy desire, and in harmony with the president of the United States, I, Jeremiah M. flusk, governor of the state of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint

Thursday, November 30th, 1882, as a day of praise and thanksgiving, for the continued unity and prosperity of the nation, for the additional growth and welfare of the state, and for the manifold blessings we have been permitted to enjoy as individuals. Being thankful for so many manifestations of the infinite goodness of Divine Providence, it is recommended that on the day herein appointed, the people of this state abstain from their ordinary vocations, and assembling in their accustomed places, give due expressions of gratitude and praise for His protection and guidance.

In testimony whereof I have beceunte set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the city of [Great Stat.] Madison, this thirtieth day of October, in the year of Lord one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-two. Py the Clovernor:

ERNST G. TIMME, Secretary of State.

Well, Cleveland's majority is 193,991. He received only 1,185 more votes than Hancock did in 1880, which shows where the republican vote went.

There is no use walking when one can ride across the states of Illinois and Iowa for one dollar. The railways are now successfully competing with foot passen-

Alexander Mitchell says he doesn't know how long this cruel railway war will last. The people do not feel much concern about when it is not their funeral. They can stand a good deal of this throat-cutting when all the cutting is done by the railways

Puc't has a good one on the election in New York. It represents John Kelly serving up the political turkey in Tammany hall to the horde of hungry demo. crats. Tammany will get the political turkey with the compliments of the independent republicans of New York.

The trial of Madame Sturla for the murder of Charley Stiles, has commenced in Chicago. It may take several weeks to reach a verdict, but in this case as in all other such cases, the verdict will be "not guilty." A protty woman finds no difficulty in turning the heads of an ordinary jury.

Dr. Leonard Bacon's family had a pow in the old Center church, New Haven, and for the first time in fifty years it was empty two or three Sandays ago. Every Sunday during that half a century, some member of the Bacon family was in the pow until recently, when sickness prevented the family from attending.

The democrats of Wisconsin seem to be extremely anxious that this state shall elect a United States senator this winter cancy so they can go to work and put in a democrat. Senator Cameron and Sawyer are good for their terms which will blast all democratic hopes.

An item is going the rounds of the press that the original Marks, the lawyer of "Unclo Tom's Cabin" has just been imprisoned by a New York city judge for contempt of court. Mr. Marks, for that is also his real name, was a judge in Texas as long ago as 1836, and his life, in many of its incidents, was accurately portrayed by the novelist.

The "law's delay" will probably make Frank James a free man. There are no indications that he will be brought to trial very soon; and in the meantime the ladies of Independence shower him with the daintiest flowers and feast him on the most tempting viands. He regards himself as a hero instead of a criminal, and all personal comfort, save that of absolute liberty, is at his command.

Governor-elect Pattison, of Penusyl. vauia, contrary to the democratic programme, will inaugurate a reform on the day of his inauguration. He will have no fuss nor parade on that day, but will take the oath in the presence of a few friends, without pomp and brilliant ceremony, and go quietly about his business. It will be remembered that Pattison is about two-thirds republican.

Mr. Joe Rankin, who has been elected to congress from the 5th district of this state, does not seem to fall in with the democratic idea of free whisky. He wants that democratic commodity kept under a tax, the same as tobacco and silks and other luxuries. This declaration on the part of Mr. Raukin, will not meet with democrat favor. There is nothing that will solidify the democratic party so much as plenty of free whisky. It is the main stay of the party, and without it, the party cannot be harmonious and prosperous. If Mr. Rankin holds fast to his idea of keeping the tax on whisky, he will lose his influence among his pointical brethren.

Ontlook has been suspended on account, it is claimed, of more pressing business or it is claimed, of more pressing business engagements on the part of its publisher, Mr. E. Prouty. The better reason probably is that in a population of scarcely liver, kidneys, and stomach, correcting Local pride under such eircumstances, will not go to the extent of furnishing support for such a number of dailies in so narroy a territory,"

We are going to have more legislation tending to increase pensions. Among the bills which look toward expending more money for pensions are those to allow pensions to workmen and employes at the navy yards and arsenals; to clerks in the postal service; to the internal revenue service; to propose an amendment to the constitution to allow ponsions for life to presidents after the expiration of their term of office; to allow the widows and orphIns of engineers of steam transports to have pensions; to grant pensions for For the Nonce There Is Nothing services in the various Indian wars: to repeal the restrictions which provide that loyalty shall be a condition precedent to the reception of a pension; to restore persons who were stricken from the roll on account of disloyalty; to grant pensions for service in the Mexican war; to repeal the limitation on filing claims for militia pensions; to pension prisoners of war, and to allow for disabilities received while confined in rebel prisons; to increase the rate of pensions for the loss of a limb, of hand and foot or sight or hearing; to amend the law relative to revolutionary pensions, making it broader; to prohibit without notice the stoppage of the payment of pensions; to continue the total disability pensions to the widow of a pensioner; and to make still more liberal provisions for the payment of pensioners of the war of 1812. When congress does all this, it wouldn't require much more money to pension all who were in the war of the The report has been set affect afresh that the guardian of Mrs. C. C. Washburn will contest the will of the late Governor Washburn. She has been confined in an asylum in New York for the insure for about thirty years and recently was taken to a private asylum near Boston. She has shown more favorable symptoms during the past few months than for years past, and in fact she has so far returned to consciousness that her guardian will make application for a renunciation of the provisions of the will. It will be remembered by the readers of the Gazetto that the first item in the will was a request that his executors spare no amount of money in providing for the personal comfort of his wife, and that all her wants should be supplied regardless of the amount required. But her present condition has inspired the guardian to begin preceedings to break the will, on the ground that it does not give the wife her share of the estate, and that on account of her returning consciousuess she is entitled her dower interest. In case the court should decide that she shall take under the statute, and not under the will, she will then be entitled in this state to the dower and lands of which the testator was seized during coverture, and also the distribution of the share of personal property. Ex-Governor Washburn was the owner of very valuable flouring mills in Minneapolis, estimated to be worth $900,000. Under the statute of Minnesota, the widow is entitled to one-third of all the lands of which her husband was seized during marriage, in fee absolute. If the court decides that Mrs. Washburn can take, against the will, a life estate in one-third of all the pine lands and other lands owned by Mr. Washburn within this state, and onethird of the personal property belonging to the estate, also the fee in one third of the flouring mills and the lands in the Minnesota estate, it will defeat the intention of the testator and place in the hands of the guardian property amounting in value to $500,000 or $600,000. It can hardly be predicted what the court will do under the circumstances. It is very evident that the unfortunate widow will never be able to mauage so large an estate as will fall to her in case the circuit court should decide to allow her the dower interest in her late husband's estate, and to put it in the hands of a guardian, would simply be

He was so bad at one time that he lost 37 pounds of fiesh, but after using Zopesa claims that he is a sound man, and now weighs 145 pounds. THE RATE WAR.

The Slogan Is Now Being Sounded by All the Western Lines.

The Illinois Central Drawn Into the Fight and Cuts Council Bluffs Rates.

It Breaks Freight as Well as Passenger Charges and Forces the Fighting.

Too Good For the Dear Public.

Cincago, Nov. 25. The western railroad war assumed a more undignant type yesterday than at any time since the difficulty began. The Rock Island's entrate of $1 from Chicago to Albert Lea, Wascea and Chaska virtually made the rate from Chicago to St. Paul $1.25, as the fare from any of these points to St. Paul is only 25 Chaska is only thirty miles from St. Paul, and while the Rock Island, according to agreement with the other roads maintains rates to St. Paul, it can really be seen that no one will pay $14.50 to get to Sc Paul when $1.25 will sorve the same purpose. The Rock Island began selling tickets to Moline and Rock Island at the same rates made by the Milwaukee & St. Paul, but about noon withdraw the order and rearmed old rates to these points. The Rock Island announces that this morning it will make a rate of $4 to Sioux Falls, Mankato and Sheldon, $1 to Plymouth Junction and Spirit Lake. These are all the important distributing points on the line of the Milwankee & St. Paul and Northwastern, whose Dakom business is especially large and important. The regular fare from Chicago to Sioux Falls is about $18. The Rock Island management is dotermined and aggressive, and says that if the Milwaukee & St. Paul opens up with anything new to-day, the Rock Island will give them a surprise on Monday morning. It is understood that the Rock Island intonds to cut Frantireau and Yankton next, and carry demoralization into all the Dakota and far northwestern business. Mr. Curpenter, general passenger agent of the Milwaukee & St. Paul, is in Milwankeo. He has not met the Rock Island's cut either at Codar Rapids, Albert Lea, or other northwestern points. It is announced, though unofficially, that this morning the Milwaukee & St. Paul will make a rate of 50 cents from Chicago to Des Moines and $1 to Council Binffs. The cut in Des Moines business will be particularly severe on the Rock Island, as that read is the main line to that point. It is expected that interesting developments will take place to-day. Yesterday the trains of the two roads were crowded with passengers, and tim outlook sooms to be that the next few days will witness an exodus of western travel from Chicago.

The developments in the traffic departments of the warring roads were even more startling, though less likely to attract immediate attention than, those of the passenger departments. Early yesterday morning the Reck Island made a rate from Chicago to Sioux City, over ie Rock Island, Burlington,& Codar Rapids & the Rock Island, Burlington,& Codar Rapids & Northern and the Omaha road, of 15 cents per hundred without classification, this rate was promptly met by the Northwestern and the Milwankee & St. Paul. In the afternoon the Rock Island made centracts at 123¢ couts as also did the Milwankee & St. Paul, and the contracting agent of the Northwestern affirmed his willingness to meet any rate made by his rivals. Naturally this roused the Illinois Central, whose read forms the direct him to Sioux City. J. T. Sanford, traffic memager of the Rock Island, said that the act was not almost at the Himois Central. Unfortunately, that road happened to have a line to Sioux City, but the Rock Island chariot had determined to go that way, and the Illinois Central at the Himois Central. Directionately, that read happened to have a line to Sienx City, but the Rock Island chariot had determined to go that way, and the Himois Central happened to be in the path. The only course for that read to pursue, it it did not wish to get squeezed, was to stand from under the falling timbers. Mr. J. F. Trucker, trailier manager of the Himois Central, spoke right out and said that the Himois Central didn't propose to be fooled with any longer. The Milwaukoo & St. Paul had cut passenger rates from Sioux City to Chicago a few days ago, and backed out of the scrape when it found it was prodding an animal that was likely to prod back. "Now," said Mr. Tucker, "this business has gone far enough. Beginning to-morrow morning the Himois Central will make the same rate from Chicago to Omaha which is Sieux City interlopers unde from Chicago to Siuxx City interlopers unde from Chicago to Siux City. It the reads want to punching enough before they're through. It's all non-sense, though; and the cause of the whole business lies back four or five years ago, when the Milwaukoe & St. Paul determined to build its line from Cedar Rapids to Council Eluffs. Of course, then, the Rock Island had to go to St. Paul to protect itself. Since that time, however, the Milwaukoe & St. Paul and the Northwestern have been building into everybody's ferritory, paralleling lines and raising the devil generally."

This morning, then, the Himois Central will make a rate of 12½ cents to Omaha without classification. It is not hought that the other Omaha lines will meet this sweeping reduction immediately but it is not apparent how a general saling of Omata rates can long be avoided. The tariff to Omaha is as high as $1 on some classes, and the 12½ rate of the Himois Central is bound to demorralize Omaha business, and if Omaha goes, other southwestern and all western business based on Omaha will go with it.

A conference of the Northwestern and Burlintote Officials was beld a vesterday at which orn and all western business based on Omaha will go with it.

A conference of the Northwestern and Burlington officials was held yesterday, at which it was decided, for the present at least, to remain spectators of the war between the Rock Island and Milwaukee & St. Paul roads. It is anderstood, too, that both the Rock Island and Milwaukee & St. Paul managements has assured the Burlington that no move will be taken, so long as it can possibly be avoided, that will involve the latter road. W. H. Stanett, general passenger agent of the Northwestern, yesterday said that the Northwestern teast out passenger rates to any point. A few days ago the Chicago, St. Paul & Minneapelis and Omaha road proposed to cut. La Crosse, Wis., but as in order to do so the Northwestern would have to have carried the passengers from Elroy to La Crosse, the scheme was thewarted by the refusal of Mr. Stennett to allow the Northwestern to take a part. The Northwestern is compelled to accent any rate the Omaha road may make on Chicago Insiliess from St. Paul, but not on other business, and the refusal of the Northwestern and the Milwaukee & St. Paul is considered to indicate that the interests of the Northwestern and the Milwaukee & St. Paul are pooled much more closely than many people imagine.

KNIFING RATES AT TOLEDO. TOLEDO, O., Nov. 25.—The railroad war seems to be coming this way. A cut in the pooling rates made by the Rock Island was discovered yesterday by a piece of detective work on the part of R. H. Fleming, traveling agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Pal, who came into this district, where the scalpers don't know him, for that purpose. He said to Mr. Carpenter that St. John, general passenger agent of the Rock Island, had been cutting. "Provo it," said Mr. Carpenter. Fleming went into the office of S. T. Fisk, a scalper here, and bought a ticket to St. Paul for $3 less than the pooled rate, and it is also understood that he inquired for Kansas City business, and found on that a cut of $2. The method adopted is as follows: The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific sonds out an order-book to the scalpers. A man dostring to go to St. Paul, Omnha, or Kansas City is inmished a ticket to Chicago by the scalper and is given an order on the Chicago agent of the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific for the ficket over that road, and at a rate several dollars less than the agreed amount. The shrowd traveling agent immediately sat down and telegraphed Mr. Carpenter, general passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul." I send you the first chapter of St. John." He thus convicts the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacinc of cutting in violation of the pool agreement. This cit will underthedly be not by the Lake Shore and Wabash.

The Post says: Call loans thus far to-day have been 20025 per cont on stocks, and borrowers experienced great difficulty in obtaining accountiations. There is much shifting or loans, and collatorids are scritinized closely. Owing to the depression in the stock market currency continues to flow from this center, and the final disbursements are running very light. The discount market is entirely nominal. The renewed depression in the market is due to dispatches from the west to the effect that the reads are cutting rates both ways between Chicago, Minnacpotis and St. Paul. The activity in money is also forcing many weak holders of stocks to sell cut

FOLGER TO THE RESCUE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The secretary of the treasury directed Assistant Treasurer Action, of New York, to accept unmatured lends in all calls, including the 119th, without relate of interest, at the rate of $10,008,000 per week, on any day of the week, payable at the office of the assistant treasurer. The cattee for this order is the recent panicky condition of the mency market. Secretary Folger has directed ossimates to be made with a view of issuing another call for bonds. The secretary is said to have been advised that the ordering of the redeviction of $10,000,000 called dering of the redemption of $10,000,000 called bonds weekly had not had the effect of quieting the money market,

SHERMAN TO THE FRONT.

The President Has Put Senator Sherman in Practical Control of the Finances of the Country.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.-Speaking of Folger's forthcoming report The Sun's Washington special says: Secretary Folger will oppose the abolition of the internal revenue tax, and will go further than he did last year respecting the reduction of the taxes. He will respecting the reduction of the taxes. He will still urgo that spirits and tobacca be inxed, but will suggest that the amount be safely reduced. He will also recommend that the tax bill be passed. He will further recommend tariff reduction, but will make no special recommendation on this subject, except to call attention to the work of the tariff commission. He will confine himself to recommending a careful and therough revision of the tariff, though he will suggest a reduction of the sugar tax, and that on iron and steel manufacturers. Secretary Folgor will also call the attention of congress to the relation of the national banks to the bonded debt of the country, suggesting that, unless the rapid excan the actional banks to the bonded debt of the country, suggesting that, unless the rapid extinguishment of the dobt is, stopped, very sorious contraction of the dobt is, stopped, very sorious contraction of the entrempy may follow, because the banks will refuse to take the desired and 4½s at a premium to replace the 1s and 4½s, preferring to refire their circulation. The secretary will recommend, therefore, that, if the revenues are not reduced, the banks be allowed to place the 3s and 3½s with 4s and 4½s, giving circulation for the full face value. It is plain that the secretary and president mean to do all in their power this winter to bring congress to its senses, and that John Sherman is to be the administration's aliventhe floor of the senate. He will see the sceretary through, and give him such advice as he may deem best. In other words, Sherman's sway over the treasury is again restored.

THE OIL MARKET.

A Wild Day's Work to the Various

The Standard Company Charged With Manipulating Things.

A Shrinkage in Actual Values of 815,000,000 in the Last Fortyeight Hours.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 24.—The oil market was fully as panicky as Thursday, and the slaughter of the bulls equally as disastrous and widespread. Thursday night the market closed at $1.05, but opened up yesterday morning with sales at $1.04, and broke off without interruption and under the wildest scenes of confusion and excitement to 87%; cents, which was touched at noon. In the afternoon the market recovered, and advanced rapidly to 98 cents, but continued unateady and unsatisfactory throughout the session. At the close some heavy trading was done at 97% cents, which was the best bid. The sales of the day were 5,520,000 barrels. The entire trade secons to be paralyzed from this sudden break in values. At times in the exchange the market would drop 5 cents without a sale being made, buyers soing scared, and few and far between. Confidence is impaired to so great an extent that it is doubtful if it can be restored for some time to come. It is considered that there is nothing in the situation in the field to depress prices, and specuand unsatisfactory throughout the session. considered that there is nothing in the situation in the field to depress prices, and speculators are still at a less to determine the exact cause of the tumble. The most plausible theory is that the entire country got leaded up, and when heavy dealers began selling the small fry tried to follow suit en masse, and then the acramble began. The prospects are just now that a steadler master may be looked for, and possibly a slight advance. The ruin and suffering that prevail in the oil country is without parallel in the history of the trade. The actual less to the region by the decline of the past two days, and the depreciation in the value of stocks and property, is roughly estimated at not less than $15,600,000.

It is not generally credited, although the tooks and property is roughly estimated at not less than $15,000,000.

It is not generally credited, although the rumer has been put in circulation, that Standard Oil is at the bottom of the "shuffle," On the contrary, it is believed that the panic was the result of perfectly natural causes, and that its worst offects will disappear. Thus far but three failures have been reported at the Bradford exchange, and those were small dealers. Heavy losses have been sustained, however, by some of the heavy producers, one losing nearly $100,000 on a single transaction. If the market should gain sufficient strength to held steady to-day it is thought no more failures will be likely to occur. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 24.—Another day of Pittsburght, Fa. Nov. 24.—Another day of of gloom and anxiety at the Oil Exchange. The market opened weak with an uter lack of confidence, and prices declined in a short time from $1.01 to $7. but afterwards recovered a little and closed firm at $1$. During the downward course the wildest excitement prevailed, and large blocks of oil were sold to satisfy the margins. The transactions were very heavy, and many thousands of deltars were lost. As yot no failures have been amnounced.

PERILS OF THE LAKE,

Severe and Destructive Storm on Lakes Huron and Eric.

Several Vessels Reported Wrecked, and Others Gone Ashore.

Considerable Damage Inflicted by the Gale at Buffalo, N. X.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 25.-Early yesterday morning a very severe storm broke over the city. For half an hour the gale was accompanied by thunder and lightning. Trees were blown down, signs unlanged and windows blown in. The schooner J. W. Donne, from Erie, was forced ashore at the broakwater and bids fair to become total wreck. The steambarge Empire arrived safely, having broken away from her tow, two schooners, broken away from her tow, two schooners, the Grattan and the A. H. Mess, which, it is feared, are lost. Undoubtedly there will be more casualities to report.

The Little Giant, floating alevator, capsized during the night, and was thrown upon the dock, causing a loss of $20,000.

The schooner J. W. Doane, ashere at the breakwater, is a total loss. She was valued at $30,000, and was owned by W. M. Egan, of Chicago. Billow, and shall Chicago.

The floating clovator American Giant, situated in Blackwell canal, was blown down. The tower was first to go, and soon after sank. No lives were lost. Loss, $15,000.

Station with the second state and the second state and the second state and the second state at midnight, thinks the loss to the shipping by the gale will be very heavy. He says there were many crafts of every description out on Lake Huron, and that the storm on Saginaw buy was simply terrible.

The schooner C. B. Benson was reported aground on Colchester reaf, Iake Eric, yestorday attenuous, thing signals of distress. The crew were lashed to the rigging. The vessel that sighted them was unable to get to them.

Last Week's Business Fallures. New York, Nov. 25.-The business failures of the past seven days reported to R. G. Dun & Co. number 157, of which 143 occurred in the country, and 14 in New York city. Though more numerous than usual, there are not so many heavy failures reported as in some previous weeks, the trouble being large-ly contined to the smaller class of traders in the country. The prominent New York assign-ments are those of Gould's Mons, teas; Levi S. Blagg, fancy goods, and Baker & McKinney, military goods. The castern states had 18 failures; western, 49; southern, 23; middle, 23; Pacific, 14; Canada, 16, and New York ofty, 14.

Distress in Connaught.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—It has been officially re-ported to the government that widespread distress is feared in Ireland this winter. The districts most seriously affected, through want of employment on farms and the failure of the of omployment on farms and the failure of the potate crop; are Sigo; Ballina, Swinford and the greater portion of Galway. There is much destitution in the west of Clare and in Connaught.; Owing to the continuously heavy drain upon Irishmen in America to support the Land league, there has been a considerable decrease in the remittances to the struggling natives in Ireland. This has reduced many to a condition of being unable to purchase new seed.

The Gardeld Fair. WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.-The Garneld monument fair will this afternoon be opened by President Arthur. The managers have exponded $18,000 in placing exhibits in proper shape. Nearly all the states have displays, and the Chinese, Japanese and British lega-tions have leaned precious articles. The re-tunds of the capitel is devoted exclusively to art.

CockerBPs Case.

Sr. Louis, Nov. 25.-The announcement is made that the grand jury of the criminal court will return an ignored bill in the John A. Cockerill case. This is really the fact, and the action of this body, which is a most intelligent one, meets with the indersement of all the thinking people of St. Louis. Mr. Cockerill was seen by a correspondent last night, and found in a by no means elated condition. He said the action of the twolve was not a surpriso to him, for they had summoned all the witnesses before them, and entered into a full examination of the facts in the case. Mr. Cookerill seems to regret as much as ever the terrible happening, which deprived Col. Slayback of L.V. C.L. but no points to the fact that no same man could have acted other than he did. His attorney, Mr. J. G. Ledge, was also met, and he says that he would rather the case had gone to trial, for then the matter would be done with. As it is, the case may be resurrected at any time, and any grand jury will have the right to rake up the matter and find an indictment if they see fit. But the action of the present body will do away with anything of the kind, unless some extraordinary piece of evidence unless some extraordinary piece of evidence turns up, which is not likely. In any event, it will be impossible after the action of the present twelve to find a body of men ready to find him guilty of even manslaughter in the second degree.

A NOVELTY.

Mr. Ehrlich's Combination Letter and Envelope Adopted by the Government.

A Couple of Folds and a Lick Make Your Letter Ready for Mailing.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The postmaster general has taken a step which it is believed in some quarters will materially affect the future operations and reforms of the department, This was in the conclusion of a contract witl Mr. Leo Ehrlich, of St." Louis, for the use of his recent ingenious invention of contbination letter sheet and envelope. By the middle of January the Ehrlich invention will be on sale at the principal postoffices in the country, in the shape of a letter shoot and envelope and stamp all for three cents, and a circular letter and envelope and stamp for one cent, adding cost of paper. The unstamped article will find its way into The unstamped article will find its way into the market through the stationery world. This is a return to the simplicity of correspondence as it was before envelopes were invested, without returning to the disadvantages of sonling wax, tapers, and wafers. The single letter sheets are manufactured with gumuned daps, which, when the sheet is folded, lap over the two open edges and secure the missive. The government stamp is to be embossed on one of the daps, which comes over like the dap on an envelope, and the whole thing is licked, stamped, and seeled with the same motion. This brings the stamp where the old wafers and seal used to be, instead of being upon the upper right-hand corner. The postmaster will not be compelled to apply the cancellation stamp, as the letters cannot be opened nor the embossed stamp removed without destroying the stamp. While the whole arrangement looks like neat trick, the principal advantage is its cheapness, both to the government and to the general public. To the man who writes his communication on one side of the sheet, as most business mendo, it will be a saving of 50 per cent in both time and expenses. To the government it will be equally advantageous. If will cost but a triffe more than an ordinary envelope, and in general use will save, it is alleged, half the present weight of the letter mails. The centract with the inventor provides that the stamped article shall be manufactured under the supervision of the government shunged envelope agents at Hartford or New York; that the government is to take no risk of the public demand, and receive no protit from such demand beyond the convenience the market through the stationery world. This voide agents at flartford or New York; that the government is to take no risk of the pulsite demand, and receive no profit from such demand beyond the convenience and advantage in landling. Those that are to be put on sale at the stamp windows will be of the denominations of 5, 2, and 1 cent the latter or circular form being minus the end flap, or open. This patent letter-sheet will be sold at a price ranging from $2 to $4 per 1,000, according to the quality of paper used. The contractor rotains his rightle as patentee, the government merely acting as his agent, and making returns and sales to him overy ninely days for the use of the scheme. Every facility for their sale is to be offered, as is now offered in the sale of stamps and stamped envelopes. The importance of this innovation on the future of the posset department will depend wholly on the favor and prejudices of the general public. If the department should carry out its design to sell stamped envelopes at the price of the stamp, as is recommended by the postmaster general, the law will carry this invention with it, and the public can have a letter and stamped envelope for three cents in one. It would seem to be a severe blow to the stamped envelope business, and to be an important factor in hurrying up cheap postage. The government, it should be added, loses nothing in ease of spoiled shoots, having reserved the right of cancellation. Another phase of the case is that Mr. Enrich managed by skillful lobbying to get a bill through congress last session authorizing the use of the device by the postmaster general, which will make him a forture.

The Hale Case.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 25. - Douglas R. Hais and his wife were taken into the municipal court yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, the former for proliminary examination, the latter to carry out a proviously formed intention to plead guilty and take sontence. When Hale stepped up on the ealt of his name, he waived an examination, and was allowed to go upon his personal recognizance, the bail being fixed by Judge Mallory at $300. Mrs. Hale was next called and stepped up to the bar. When asked the usual question, "Guilty or not guilty?" she responded in a firm yet subdued voice, "Guilty." Judge Mallory then sentenced her to eight months imprisonment in the house of correction, the first day to be passed in solitary confinement. The stainte limits the punishment for the offense with which she stood charged to imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than oneyear. Judge Mallory chose the medium of the extremes, which, with the reduction allowed for good behavior, will make the actual term of imprisonment six months and twenty days. Mrs. Hale returned to her quarters at the police station apparently in a happy frame of mind. When first approhended she expected her punishment would not be less than a term of ten years, and to get off with a sentence of eight months, after such gloomy expectations, appeared in the light of a perfect godsend. So far as Mr. Hale is concerned, the police officials consider the presecution virtually at an end and he may be looked upon as a free man. guilty and take sentence. When Hale step-

She was acting as governoss at the house which she robbed.

LABOR.

The Platform Adopted and Officers Chosen---A Banquet.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 25.-In the Labor congress, Messrs. Gowpers, of New York, Howards of Massachusetts, Edmondston, of Washington, Powers, of Chicago, and Foster, of Ohio, were appointed a committee on legislation for the ensuing year, N. H. Foster, of Cincinnati, was elected general secretary. Robert Howard again took general secretary. Robert Howard again took occasion to present the condition of the workingmen and women employed in the various cotton mills of the New England states, and the reform which he hoped to see inaugurated. Howard was recently a member of the Massachusetts legislature. An invitation from the Cloveland trades assembly, inviting the members of the federation to attend a banquet at the Striobinger house in the evening, was accepted with thanks. It was announced that the impression had gone abroad that the federation had completely ignored the Knights of Labor and reshanks. It was announced that the impression had gone abroad that the federation had completely ignored the Knights of Labor and refused them admission to their sessions. The members of the federation wish the mistake to be corrected. The committee on platform made its report, which was adopted. The substance of the platform is as follows: That trade and labor unlons have the same right as persons or other societies to protect their property, and that laws be passed to that effect; that compulsory education have be enforced; that have be made forbidding the employment of children under the age of 14 in any capacity; that uniform apprentice laws be adopted; that a national eight-hour law be adopted; that a national eight-hour law be adopted; that a national eight-hour law be offered order or "truck" system of payment be entirely abolished; that have be passed that will secure to the workingmen the first lion upon property the product of their labor; that all acts known as conspiracy laws be emased from the statute books; that a mational bureau of labor statistics be established; that congress pass an act to prevent the important congress pass an act to provent the importa-tion of foreign laborers under contract; that all trade and labor organizations be recom-mended to secure proper representation in all law-making bodies by means of the ballot, and to use all honorable measures to accomplish that result.

No business of public importance was transacted in the afternoon, the consideration of bills and their payment being in order. After a fervont prayer by Kennott McKenzie, of Now York, the congress adjourned until the third Tuesday of next August, when it will again assemble in New York. At the banquet extended by the local Trades assembly to the congress last evening, speeches were made by Cleveland orators and by various guests.

PARLIAMENT.

Gladstone Responds to Taunts About the Kilmainham Treaty.

LONDON, Nov. 25.-In the house of consmons Trevellyan, chief secretary for Ireland, said that since August last all copies of The Irish World and The Irish Nation which had arrived in Ireland had been seized, but the stoppage of the circulation of these papers in England was necceary. Gladstone, in answer to Bourke, said no agreement had been completed with Egyptand no conference had been proposed. Yorke moved an adjournment of the house in order to discuss the conduct of the government in regard to the Kilmainham affair. The opposition (Conservative and Irish members) rose in support of the metion. Their action was greeted with laughter and

Their action was greeted with laughter and choers.
Yorke then spoke in support of his motion. Cladstone replied to Yorke. He said the undeserved praise of his friends was counteracted by the continual accusations of Lord Randolph Churchill and Mr. Yorke, but it required much sharper weapons and heavier blows than Yorke could wield to arouse his ariger. He complained that those who made accusations about the 'Kilmainham treaty' had not brought them to the test at the proper time. He repudiated the charge that his will was law to the Liberal party. Gladstone declared that nothing had passed from the government to Parnell, who neither asked nor knew anything from the governmentine tim regard to his conting release or my measure intended by the government except what he might have gathered from the now-papers. There was he negotiation promise or engagement. Lord Randolph Churchill declared that the house was not a whit wiser after Gladstone' speech.

Yorke's motion for adjournment was neg atived.

FROM HONOLULU.

An Interesting Letter from a Fermer Janesvillian.

Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands,)
¡October oth, 1882. }
My Dear Mr. Stowell:—November will have come in Central New York with frost, ice, a little snow and bad roads, by the time this letter reaches you, whereas we shall have entered upon our winter with the thermometer marked an average daily of 68 degrees to 70 degrees. We Americans and Europeans naturally speak of the weather and do not altogether count it from our correspondence. In the Hawaiian Islands conversation is de-prived of that elsewhere unfailing topic. Those who have lived in other climes speak of it from force of habit. In the speak of it from force of habit. In the native language there is no word by which our English word 'weather' can possibly be translated. There is no necessity to consult the almanac. Your plans for afternoon and evening are not dependent on sudden changes. If it rains, the rain is mild and soft and no one seems to care, whether it falls or not. In the Nunanu valley, where we live, the rain often falls while the sun is brightly ship. often falls while the sun is brightly shinover head. We have but to look up to the mountains to see their tops covered with rain which the trade wind is blowing over us. Our comfort depends on the trade winds to a large extent. They blow more than three-fourths of the time size. more than three-fourths of the time, giving refreshment and health. The sun seems very hot, but you need but a light shade to give cool shelter. Sunstroke is the islands.

The climate is undoubtedly delicious for those who are well, for old people who need rest and cannot endure extremes, and for children who are happy here in bare footed out door life. If or active people in the prime of life the climate is undoubtedly debilitating. It is difficult in a constant summer temperature to keep un labits of vigorous everying and very up habits of vigorous exercise and very easy to become accustomed never to walk when you can ride, and never to do any thing which some one clse can be had to unknown even in the warmest regions of

One very pleasant feature of the life there is the free social and generous habit of the American and European residents. They seem to have taken to themselves some of the good nature of the native Hawaiian. To strangers they are courteous and hospitable beyond measure. We have been the recipients of calls and invitations of great number. The generations of great number of the stranger feeling of good fellowship is very delightful, especially to new comers. The different religious bodies are firm in holding to their pecugliar beliefs and methods, but socially there are no lines drawn. I had the privilege of being the chief minister at a wedding recently where at the recently. vedding reeen hera at the recenti following, the bishop of the Roman church and the missionaries of Calvinistic Protestantism met without jar or discord. The "heathen Chinee" was also represented in the presence of a rich merchant who has a native wife. King Kalakaua came in as a gentleman in evening dress and the Royal band gave excellent music in honor of the nuptials. As I have written of a wedding I must not omit to mention that on the evening of the day following I united in hely matrimony a dusky couple of high posi-tion. Three hundred guests sat down to an excellent supper set under a lanai, a covered booth over a rush covered floor. The bride wore creamy-white satin and orange blossoms, and as a wedding gift received from her father a box containing $300 in gold and silver pieces. This sum, as he said in a graceful speech to the bride, the groom and the company, he had been gathering since 1864 as a marriage gift for his daughter, and every coin had been put in by his hand. The day following was reserved for the lunu a native feast, at which were eaten three oxen and five pigs roasted whole and served with unlimited poi to all who served with unlimited poor to all who would come. The natives are a happy chattering people. To sit on their haunches and gossip good naturedly about the day's doings is their chief delight. They are fast passing away as a mass. The years are possing away as a race. The young people growing up intermarry with whites and Chinese.

have fewer attendants, and the old native customs are falling more and more into Lest any of our readers should imagine that there is anything approaching savage life here where man has been said to feed upon the flesh of his brother man, I will add that as I write on the piazza o our house the steam crusher is at work on the well paved avenue in front of us, that the houses are handsome in construction, handsomely furnished within, the yards are kept neatly by Chinamen who talk good English—carriages constantly are passing, flowers are blooming in the gardens in a strange admixture of the tropics and the temperate zone. I can at this moment see cocounits, dates, and bananas growing, count six different kinds of palms, while in our yard are growing wild shrubs and plants which at home are cultivated with great care in the hot house. In our stores you can buy anything you desire, from a needle to steam engine, from a spool of thread to an Indian shawl—and pay more than you would anywhere else. A Bapilst Minister's Experience.

I am a Baptist Minister, and before even thought of being a clergymau, I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession 40 years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy; "Thomas' Electric Ore cared me." I was also troubled with hearseness, and Thomas' Electric Oil always relieved me. My wife and child had diphtheria, and "Thomas Eelectric Oil grand them". tric Oil cared them," and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of teu. I am confident it is a cure for the most obsti-nate cold or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head by snifling as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice that twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their cutarrh. For deafness and carache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. This the only replacing ducked edge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like-Thomas Electric Oil.

The Absent Minded Man and His Box.

"I was going to Kinzua, when a young man got on at Warren and sits down side of me, and bym'by says he down side of me, and bym'by says he live a little box here I call my bean box.' With that he pulls out a little round box an' shakes it, an' I hears somethin' rattle. 'Now,' says he, 's' pose we jest bet the cigars on there being odd or even beans in that box.' 'All right,' says I, 'it's odd.' 'You've lost,' says he. 'Yes,' says f; 'we'll get the cigars at Kinzaa.' And then we falls to talkin' about somethin' else a long time, until all once says he, 'I just want to show all once says he, 'I just want to show you a little bear box I've got here;' an' he pulls out that box again. Says he, 'Let's bet the cigars or something on odd or even beans in this box.' Thinks I to myself, you poor absent-minded critter, can't remember that you showed me a minute ago. And I save 'All right; s'pose we make the bet five dollars." I thought I'd just teach him to remember things. "I'll do it," says he; 'now what is it?" Even, says f. He opened the box and—" "Well, what then?" says the reporter, as the Colonel paused. "He wasn't so absent-minded after all," said the Colonel. "There was seven beans in that box."

"I found out afterward that the box had no bottom, or rather had covers at both ends. On one of the covers was fastened three beans, and there were four loose beans in the box. When the man who bet said odd, the cover to which the beans were fastened was taken off, and when he said even, the other end was lifted."—Oil City Derrick.

To Take Out Milk and Coffee Stains.

These stains are very difficult to remove, especially from light-colored and finely-finished goods. From woolen and mixed fabrics they are taken out by moistening them with a mixture of one part glycerine, nine parts water and onehalf part aqua ammonia. This mixture is applied to the goods by means of a brush, and allowed to remain for twelve hours (occasionally renewing the moistening). After this time the stained pieces are pressed between cloth and then rubbed with a clean rag. Drying, and if possible, a little steaming, is generally sufficient to thoroughly remove the stains. Stains on silk garments which are dyed with delicate colors, or finely finished, are more difficult to remove. In this case five parts glycerine are mixed with five parts water and one quarter part ammonia added. Before using this mixture it should be tried on some part of the garment where it cannot be noticed, in order to see if the mixture will change color. If such be the case no ammonia should be added. If, on the contrary, no change takes place, or if, after drying, the original color is restored, the above mixture is applied with a soft brush, allowing it to remain on the stains for six or eight hours, and is then rubbed with a clean cloth. The remaining dry substance is then execully taken off by means of a knife. The injured places are now brushed over with clean water, pressed between cloths and dried. If the stain is not then removed, a rubbing with dry bread will easily take it off. To restore the finish a thin solution of gum-arabic, or in many cases beer is preferred, is brushed on, then dried and carefully brushed on, then arred and carefully indeed. By careful manipulation these stains will be successfully removed.— Farm and Fireside. Weak lungs, spitting of blood, consumption, and kindred affections, cured without physician. Mr. C. V. B. Wires are being stretched to-day from this machine to Winslow's, McKey's, Richardson's, and the drugstore of Prentice & Evenson, when an experimental light will be placed in each. It is the intention of the Janesville company to put these lights in operation on Monday night, if the work can be satisfactorily completed by that time. was a large audience opera house, last evening, to witness the performance of Karalfy's Black Crook, What the performance really was can only be judged by those who were fortunate enough to be present. The drama of the Black Crook, is magical, beautiful, and spectacular, and Spring Brook is to be connected with in these regards surpasses any other drama ever put upon the stage. The cast was a very good one, all the actors being especially suited to their particular work role, acted his part exceedingly well, and so did George Ober-Greppo, his drudge. But the great attraction in Black Crook is not simply in the acting. connected it that beauty of stage settings and spectacular scenes that make it beautiful beyond comparison. Especially is this the case in the great incantation scene which closes the first act, the illuminated carnival scene at the opening of the third act, and the grand transformation scene which closes the fourth act and rings down the curtain. These scenes are worth the price of admission, if all other things were omitted. But the specialties are incomparably good, and afford an excellent entertainment of themselves. Prominent among them is the dancing of that widely known artist,Mllə. Maric Bonfanti. She stands today the foremost dancer in this country. Some of her feats are surprisingly wonderful and charmingly interesting, and those who desire to see what this famous artist can do, should see her to night. Then come to the Snydam brothers—two marvolous acrobats—performing some of the most astonishing feats on the bar ever seen upon the stage or under the canvas. Miss Blanche Saymour, who took the part of Stalacta, the queen of the golden realm, has a voice of bewitching beauty which shows rare cultivation. Also Miss Bessic Bell was recalled several times on her songs. Griffin and Marks: the acrobatic song and dance team, were especially fine and scored a triumph. There are many other interesting features connected with this splendid entertainment. We bespeak the managers a good house to-night. The ladies should turn out en masse to witness the perform-

Arrested for Blgamy. Christian Hansen, of Juneau county, has fallen into the hands of the law, all on account of deserting a young lady in that county and taking up his abode in this city under the name of John Johnson. It seems that Hansen is charged with bigamy in Juneau county, and that the sheriff of that county has had a warrant for his arrest for some months, but could not ascertain his whereabouts. Hansen came to this city and obtained employment at the railroad shops, under the name of John Johnson. He was in the habit of calling for letters at the postoffice, and there being a man by that name now in our county jail, charged with the same crime, one of letters was given to him. This letter was written in the Danish language, and bore Johnson's true name (Hansen) on the inside. The letter gave Johnson an account of how matters stood in Mauston, and what Lad become of the girl. Upon this information, Sheriff Skaylem notified the officers of Juneau Wednesday, and on Thursday afternoon the sheriff of Juneau county came and took his prisoner home, where he will have a chance to defend himself against the charge, or receive employment for a time at Wanpun.

ICONOCLAST RELIGION.

A Gathering of the Disciples Who are to Destroy All the Idois of the Past.

GREAT RIBBON SALE

CRICAGO, NOV. 25. At the ression of the Free Religious association, at Hershey hall, an address was delivered by Frederick A. Hinckley, of Providence, R. I, the secretary of the association, who spoke of "The Unwritten Greed of the Coming Religion." He said: "Liberatism in religion the struggles made for mental freedom have been affirmative actions. The history of the Christian religion, with all that can be claimed for it, embraces but a small portion of the past, but the religion of reason runs far back of the time even when man was created of the time , even when man was created. This movement represent; the whole past, and only claims the universality of simple truth. It has the whole future for its field of duty. The old religion demes the importance of the life that now is small the fraternity of man. It is far more important to discover a means to prevent patry larceny without the incarceration of genius than to define the power culled God. The new religion affirms a common destiny for all, and truth, justice and love are its creed."

Mrs. Annie L. Diggs, of Lawrence, Kas, was introduced, and defined free religion as "one whose creed is perfect freedom—lisered of the coming church, which has already come. There is no further need of that which men call prayer. There is a worship side to free religion, but it is the worship of the soul in sacred reverie.

New York, Nov. 25,-Mr. Oscar Wilds and a man with plaid trousers have both visited the contest of beauty at Bunnell's museum. Mr. Wilde was there on Tuesday evening. He remained only a short time, the railing which encloses the fair contestants being red, and the last summer's fly hangings overhead being orange and blue. He did not vote for anybody; and indeed there is nobody entered in the contest who looks particularly like a Greek the contest who looks particularly life a Greek gem. The man with the plaid trousers has visited the contest every day, [speuding many hours on the occasion of each visit. His plaid trousers are very tight, and his legs end in plaid gaiters and pointed shoes. He has the appearance of wearing corsets, and always carries a came in one hand and an open silver truit knife in the other. He has conversational tendencies, which unfortunately are of such a perisistent nature that yes. has conversational tendencies, which unfortu-nately are of such a persistent nature that yes-terday a policeman had to be called in to check them. The man had been conversing with the ladies for five hours when the policeman ar-rived. The policeman went out with the man. The polls at the contest will close at 10 clock on Saturday evening. It is hard to guess which one of the contestants is ahead. The men generally buy ballots enough to put one in for each. The ladies vote with more purpu-dice, and it is likely that their ballots, which they deposit with much secrecy, will decide a question of great delicacy and extraordinary interest.
